TIPS FOR A POSITIVE JUICY FEST EXPERIENCE

JuicyFest

DOWNLOAD YOUR TICKETS

Print or pre-download your tickets prior to arriving at the venue to avoid delays at entry.

If your ticket is on your phone, screenshot it before arriving at the gates.

Turn up the brightness on your phone to maximum setting for fast scanning. If your screen is damaged, please print your ticket.

STAY HYDRATED

Bring an empty plastic bottle to fill with water at the multiple free water stations. These will be around the bars. There are also bottled water and soft drinks available for purchase at the bars as well.

TAKE REGULAR BREAKS

Find a space to enjoy some chill out time and rest throughout the duration of the festival.

FUEL YOUR BODY

Keep your energy levels up by enjoying some of the delicious food options available from our vendors.

PREPARE FOR ALL WEATHER CONDITIONS

Mercury Baypark is an uncovered venue. We recommend preparing for all conditions on the day, including having raincoats or ponchos for the rain.

For sunny conditions, 'slip, slop, slap and wrap' to protect your skin and eyes. Slip on weather-appropriate clothing, slop on sunscreen, slap on a hat and wrap on sunglasses

TAKE CARE

Take care before, during and after Juicy Fest.

Be safe, be responsible and look out for those around you.

BE KIND

Bring good energy to Juicy Fest.

Be respectful of other festival-goers and be kind to one another.

SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING

If you see someone struggling, see something that seems out of place, alert one of our staff members immediately.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESS

A dedicated wheelchair platform is available.

If you are in a wheelchair and would like to book a space on this platform for you and one support person, email event@juicyfest.co.nz.

Limited spaces are available and is offered on a strict first-come, first-served basis.
